PUTTING IN THE GUTTERS NOW

NEW AWNING ORDINANCE OF THE
BOARD OF SUPERVISORS IS BE-ING COMPLIED WITH.

A number of people are having their new gutters put on today, in conformity to the new ordinance of the Board of Supervisors, among which are a number of people who signed the petition circulated by J. A. McCandless. McCandless would not illicit any information regarding his feeling in this two penny ordinance as he called it, but by his manner indicated that he was going to obey the law that has lately been passed by the County Czar.

WONDERFUL
TUG IROQUOIS

+++++
The fact that the tug Iroquois has no wireless apparatus on board leads special interest to the following story:

VALLEJO, August 23.—Much gratification is felt at the Mare Island Navy Yard over the exceptionally long-distance wireless message received at the Farallone station from the naval tug Iroquois, as the wireless apparatus, both at the Farallones and aboard the tug, was installed by the equipment department of this station. The Iroquois, which was under repairs here some few months ago, stopped at the Midway islands, 2770 miles from the Farallones, and while there called up the latter station, asking for the correct time in San Francisco in order that the tug could adjust her chronometers.

The message was sent by the commander of the tug, Lieutenant-Commander James F. Carter, who was received distinctly in San Francisco and communication was kept up for some minutes, the tug and the Farallones conversing easily. This is one of the best tests of the wireless ever made on this coast and has been most gratifying to the officials and employees at Mare Island, by whom the wireless work for the Pacific squadron as well as at all the stations along the coast has been done.

One-hundred-and-fifty people are booked for passage to the Coast in the O. S. S. Sierra. COUNTY RAISES
STARS AND STRIPES

THE QUARTERS OF THE OAHU
OFFICIALS.

Promptly at eleven thirty this morning, Captain Berger raised his baton, and the strains of the Star Spangled Banner floated heavenwards, and at the same moment Miss Mary Achuek one of the clerks in the County Attorney's office started to haul away in true man-of-war style, the halyards that were used to hoist the first flag, that has ever flown to the breeze from the pole on the top of the county offices.

Long before the time mentioned for the patriotic ceremonies people began to assemble to witness this flag raising that was mentioned exclusively in yesterday's Star, and the four corners of Port and King street were lined with people.

For some reason or other the Board of Supervisors have neglected to have a flag over their offices, and it was decided by the board the other night that as a flag was supposed to float to the breeze from the flag pole of every public building it was time that they should have one also.
